G.O.Ms.No. 4

Date: 31.05.2014.

Read the following :-

A.P Re-organisation Act 2014 (Act No. 6 of 2014)

000

ORDER:

1. As per the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2014, from the appointed day of 2nd June 2014, the successor State of Andhra Pradesh and the successor State of Telangana come into existence from the existing State of Andhra Pradesh.

2. Government of Andhra Pradesh has created Public Private Partnership (PPP) Cell in Finance Department. The scope of work of PPP Cell has been defined vide GOMs. No.4 Finance (PMU) Department dated 28-04-2007. As part of the scope of work, a comprehensive PPP-MIS application has been developed by PPP Cell with the assistance of CGG under RIF scheme for online monitoring of PPP Projects in the State through the website www.ppp.ap.gov.in. PPP Cell is maintaining the data base of PPP projects taken up by the departments. As on 31st May 2014, there are 180 projects with a project cost of Rs 75,882.73 crores as available in the PPP Website. They are under Initiation Stage, Bidding Stage, Construction Stage and Operation Stage. The details of the projects are available at <http://www.ppp.ap.gov.in>. The data is provided and updated in the website by the respective departments. Some of the projects are falling under either the successor State of Andhra Pradesh or the successor State of Telangana and some of the projects are falling under common jurisdiction of both the successor States.

3. The Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2014, states at section 60, the procedure for apportioning the projects between successor States. The section reads as follows:

60. (1) Where, before the appointed day, the existing State of Andhra Pradesh has made any contract in the exercise of its executive power for any purposes of the State, that contract shall, -

- (a) if the purposes of the contract are, on and from the appointed day, exclusive purposes of either of the successor States of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, then it shall be deemed to have been made in exercise of the executive power of that State and the liability shall be discharged by that State; and
- (b) in any other case, all rights and liabilities which have accrued or may accrue under any such contract shall be apportioned between the successor States on the basis of population ratio or in any other manner as may be agreed to by the successor States.

(2) For the purposes of this section, there shall be deemed to be included in the liabilities which have accrued or may accrue under any contract –

(a) any liability to satisfy an order or award made by any court or other tribunal in proceedings relating to the contract; and

(b) any liability in respect of expenses incurred in or in connection with any such proceedings.

(3) This section shall have effect subject to the other provisions of this Part relating to the apportionment of liabilities in respect of loans, guarantees and other financial obligations; and the bank balances and securities shall, notwithstanding that they partake of the nature of contractual rights, be dealt with under those provisions.”

4. In view of the above, all the departments shall follow the instructions given in the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2014, especially section 60 of the Act in apportioning the projects between the successor States. The information of the PPP Projects as available in the PPP Website is given in the annexure. These instructions shall also be applicable to all other PPP Projects which are not included in the annexure, but taken up by the departments through PPP mode.

5. Consequent to the re-organisation of the exiting state of Andhra Pradesh into successor States of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, Centre for Good Governance has created PPP website to the successor state of Telangana. The sites can be accessed through the Websites of their respective Governments by using the following URLs from the appointed day i.e. 02.06.2014.

a. URL for the state of Andhra Pradesh: <http://www.ppp.ap.gov.in>

b. URL for the state of Telangana: <http://www.ppp.tg.gov.in>

6. The successor governments may update wherever necessary the content, including State logo, State Name, Information on State Officials, Information on PPP Projects in their respective websites. They may also delete the information which is not pertaining to their respective States. They may start using the websites after comprehensively validating the data in the websites.

7. Secretary, IT & C Department is requested to host both the websites including MIS application in their respective State Data Centers.

These orders are available in Government website: www.goir.ap.gov.in.
